

Dear Fotis and Konstantina,

after having quite a few, very interesting, and intellectual conversations in regards to your ideas, and future website you are building, I am confident you are on the right track.

I personally believe you both, not only are very intelligent, but very truthful and caring human beings. And that is an important part of the recipe for success. You are always in the frontline and ready to offer your love for life, your cultural ideas, and most important to share your knowledge so you may help others. You are both truly exceptional people! I believe your ideas about the site you are creating will not only thrive, but most important will help others, will help to better the world. I believe in you and definitely I know you both have a lot to offer to all of us, and to our future. I like to personally thank you for what you are trying to offer us and wish you all the best with your work ahead. It may not be easy but I know you will not give up on us.

P.S. Below are a few recommendations for your website.

- . Your website must have a clear goal and will satisfy the user's intent
- . Your website must be trustworthy, safe and secure
- . Your website must have a great design, technical prowess and to be mobile friendly
- . And most important you must be interactive with the users through your website.
